

Giselle Whitfield

Program Manager, Office of Small Business Programs

Headquarters, Army Materiel Command, Redstone Arsenal, AL

Ms Whitfield is a Program Manager for the Office of Small Business Programs, HQ, U.S. Army Materiel Command. Prior to her current position she was the Acting Associate Director and Deputy Associate Director, Office of Small Business Programs for Information Technology, E-Commerce & Commercial Contracting Center (ITEC4) and was detailed to the Contracting Center for Excellence. Prior to ITEC4 she worked at the U.S. Army Acquisition Support Center as a Program Analyst/Contracting Career Manager in the Contracting Career Program Office. Ms Whitfield has also served as an Acquisition Career Manager with the Acquisition Support Center's National Capital Region Customer Support Office and has served as a Contract Specialist at two different Army Contracting and Acquisition Centers.

Ms Whitfield is a native of Louisiana and received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Southern University A&M College and a Masters degree in Management from Webster University. She is an Acquisition Corps member, Level III certified in Contracting and Level II certified in Program Management. She has received numerous awards throughout her career including the Commanders Award for Civilian Service, Achievement Medal for Civilian Service and the National Guard Bureau Minuteman Award.